You are all about spending time creating, exploring, and never letting pesky things like health or hunger get in the way of your game time! You really rate flying in Creative Mode, coz you can discover so much from the air, and you always love building epic structures with unlimited blocks, and breaking 'em down!

14-27 = Adventure Mode

Hey there, world builder! It's clear that Adventure Mode is your jam. You can't get enough of creating your own maps, while learning some coding along the way. Plus, you're a big fan of checking out the quests other Minecrafters have built. You even like the challenge of finding the right tool to break certain blocks!
